

FIP Centennial Congress 2012

Students' Package

3-8 OCTOBER 2012
AMSTERDAM, THE NETHERLANDS

The chance to meet colleagues from every corner of the globe and steer the future of pharmacy is yours at the 2012 FIP Centennial Congress, the leading international event offering diverse learning opportunities for those active within all areas of pharmacy.

In collaboration with the International Pharmaceutical Students' Federation (IPSF), the European Pharmaceutical Students' Association (EPSA) and the Koninklijke Nederlandse Pharmaceutische Studenten Vereniging (K.N.P.S.V.), FIP will provide pharmacy students the opportunity to attend this congress for a unique price which includes not only the participation in FIP Centennial Congress, but also accommodation, meals and social events specially organised for students. FIP's Centennial congress will take place in the fascinating city of Amsterdam, home to unique architecture, world renowned museums and undeniable charismatic charm.

Fee: 325 EUR, which includes:

- Registration in FIP Centennial Congress
- 5 nights at the Stay Okay Hostel Zeeburg
- Breakfast and Dinner
- Attendance of all activities organized by FIP Centennial Student Committee

The registrations are limited to 100 students!

For more information and registration go to:

www.knpsv.nl/fip2012

Contact us through: students.fip2012@gmail.com

Follow us on Facebook! www.facebook.com/FIPCentennial2012students

